Vol. 49, No. 52

YEAR END Devotional

Wednesday, Dec. 30

A combined worship with Del City and
Ridgecrest at Eastside at 7:00 p.m.

Family Matters

Pantry Items Needed: Peanut Butter and Jelly.

Tis better to give than to receive. Approximately $1,250 was collected and with Billie Lovinggood so graciously giving her time to shop and work with those who wanted to sponsor a family, we were able to help 14 families (44 individuals) to have a better Christmas. Thanks to all who helped - especially Billie.

The GOC key with the red ribbon on it is still missing. If you have it please return it to the office.

Prayer Requests

James Bowers' surgery went well and he is improving.

Herbert Wilson is now home and doing well.

Carol Gorrell had an eye procedure last week and Lloyd had an MRI.

Resolutions

CI: Faithfulness never goes out of style.

AIM: To challenge each person to a greater sense of faithfulness in the coming year.

 New Year's resolutions are very popular this time of year.

 Whatever commitments you make during the coming year, here are three beginning suggestions:

1. "be _____."
2. "be _____"
3. "be _____."

Reality: Everything that I have belongs to God - do I live like that?

Passage: It is required of the Lord's steward to be faithful (1 Cor. 4:2).

In the coming year, may I encourage you to...

- I. be faithful to _____.
- II. be faithful to your _____.
- III. be a faithful _____.
- IV. be a faithful _____.

1. Keep _____ on!
2. Have weekly _____ of commitments/review progress
3. Make sure there is regular _____.
4. Finish _____ (Eccl. 7:8a; Matt. 25:21,23).
